IMAGE FESTIVAL #1

MARCH 2011 | AMMAN

Images overwhelm us. We live amongst them.

Images tell stories, delight us, make us dream, scare us. They are part of our world - especially urban - and leave no one indifferent.

The Image Festival aims at showing, sharing, discussing a variety of influences to apprehend and understand those of others.

25 French and Jordanian artists will show their latest work with the firm intention to share their thoughts, emotions and inspiration.

This first edition presents, over the entire month of March, more than 500 photographic works. It opens the way to the second edition of the Festival, in 2012, which eclecticism will lead us to present the image in all its forms. Enjoy the Image Festival!
